

MANIFESTO

- THE - JURIS ALLIANCE

Restoring Prestige

Prestige. Pride. Inclusivity.

MEET THE TEAM

Hey, my name is John Otieno. You can call me Johnte.

I am a passionate third-year law student at CUEA Faculty of Law, a dedicated leader, and a strong advocate for student welfare.

I serve as Chairman of the Law Sports Society, Chairman of the Juris Leadership Alliance, and Captain of the CUEA Dark Knights Basketball Team.

Driven by a commitment to serving students, I spearheaded initiatives such as Operation Okoa Missing Marks, community outreach, and civic education.

My leadership is grounded in transformational leadership, integrity, accountability, and giving every student a voice. Guided by the belief that true leadership empowers others to succeed, I am committed to serving as a responsible and people centred President of the Faculty of Law.

- T H E - P R E S I D E N T -

Hi, my name is Anne Tuvia and I have lived a life in service of others in the process learning that you must be the change you want to see, because no one can do anything exactly like you.

I have served as the Head of Moot Training, the Legal Policy Coordinator at LAJI, the Head of Oral Advocacy at CUEA Lawfirm and as the Deputy Head of the ICJ Kenya Model UN.

These spaces have opened up my mind and sharpened my experience as a leader and I want to bring this newfound knowledge to the position of, Vice President, to serve CUEA to the best of abilities.

hey hey, Wakili!

My name is Cindy Nkatha Thaiting'a, a vivacious and ambitious Leader. Outside law and leadership, you'll probably find me crocheting or hunting down a good shawarma.

I have served as the Communications Director and Graphic Design Lead at the KMUN, Treasurer at the FOL Mental Health Department, volunteered at the Jua Terms' Communications Department and worked with the ALN Academy, marketing team.

These roles have taught me something important: good leadership starts with listening. As Secretary, I want to use my experience to strengthen communication, make student concerns heard and help bridge the gap between students and administration.

I'm not just here to hold a position. I'm here to be your link and your voice.

- S E C R E T A R Y -

OO WHAT? WILL WE

our plans for CUEA law

1 academics & missing marks

Our president spearheaded Operation Ondoa Missing Marks, and we will finish the job. We will work with the IT team to move missing-marks filing into the student portal: submit, track and get notified. This saves time and money, especially for students who are away on holiday and miss the deadline to file.

- Faculty Academics representatives will follow up every case, especially for Common Units taught in the main school, such as Communication Skills.
- Every case is logged and tracked until it is resolved, with Heads of Department kept in the loop.
- A reminder campaign about re-mark deadlines (two weeks from release of results) and supplementary or special exam applications.

Student Dignity and Welfare

- Respect both ways. We will have zero tolerance for harassment. We will address guard harassment at the gates and undignified incidents such as students being locked out or kicked out over the use of A5 books. We will also urge students to be courteous in return. Student to student harassment will also be dealt with.
- Bridging the Admin-Student gap. We will be an authentic representative voice at administrative level and defend student interests without bowing to pressure.
- The basics. Working mirrors and a steady supply of tissue in the washrooms, watered grass, Revamping the computer lab and making it open for use stronger WiFi and the reopening of the campus canteen.
- Weekly Suggestion Box. Students drop concerns in the box (physical and digital) any day. It is checked every Friday, and we publish "You said, we did".

Disability Rights, Accessibility and Inclusion 3.

Inclusion is its own pillar, not a footnote. Under Article 54 of the Constitution, persons with disabilities are entitled to dignity, access to educational institutions and facilities, and reasonable access to materials and devices. Article 7(3) also recognises Kenyan Sign Language and Braille. We will advocate for:

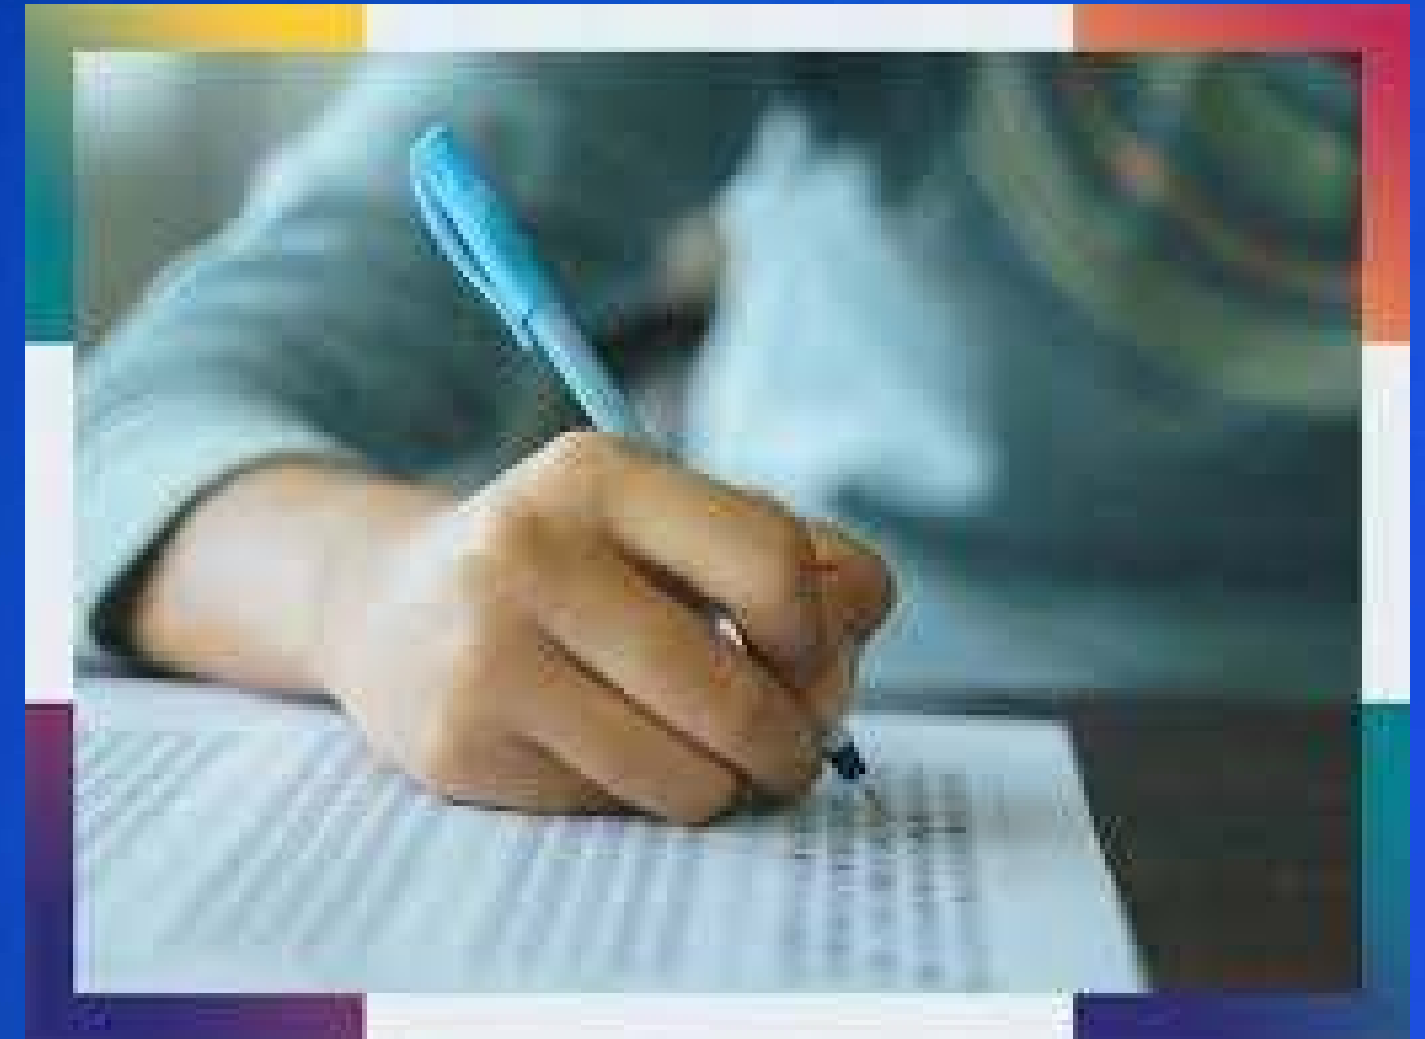

- Reasonable examination and learning accommodations.
- A direct channel for students with disabilities to raise concerns with student leadership and have them followed up. We do not claim to have all the answers, so we will listen first.

The wording of this pillar will only be finalised after consultation with students with disabilities.

- Through our partnership framework with UNICAF , eligible students can access a substantial Unicaf scholarship towards internationally recognised programmes with partner institutions (Unicaf University, the University of Suffolk and the University of East London), as well as professional short courses. Students can stack these on top of their law degrees for a competitive edge before they graduate. Eligibility, programmes and fees depend on the partnership terms, and the scholarship covers tuition only. We will publish approved, accurate information on how to apply.
- Careers days and Law firm internships. We will work with law firms to make internship applications easier, with a one-stop guide, and place students with firms within the Handbook's 100 km attachment limit.
- Alumni network. Graduates mentoring students through career talks, referrals, pupillage and bar-course guidance.
- Opportunity Hub. One trusted place for interview invitations, internships and scholarship alerts.
- Entrepreneur Hub. A space for law students to network, pitch and advertise their businesses.

Post
University
Success 4.

Sports, Culture and Social Life

- More sports. Through the FOL Sports Club we will expand beyond football to basketball and other indoor and outdoor games, with a week dedicated to sports that also includes fun races.
- Both genders. Sports has long been male-focused, so our Sports Committee will have both a male and a female representative.
- Prestige and excitement. Law school works with other faculties but is independent, so we will bring back dedicated law mixers, academic events, a Finalists Dinner and a memorable end-of-year Gala, following the official University dress code.
- Moot and debate events that will not only take place in the Sep intake semesters but also May to August.
- We shall push for our Moot Court to have a proper infrastructure. (Coat of arms etc)
- Law school events. Game nights, movie nights and festivals.

5.

Clubs and Societies

1. Our Committees

Committees make the plan run. Under the Handbook they are formed through the Students Governing Convention, so we will table these for approval.

The heads of these committees will receive certification.

| Committee           | Key Responsibilities                                                                                                                                                                                         | Handbook Link                 |
|---------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Academics           | Missing marks system, timetables, Diploma-to-LLB case, Dean's List, suggestion box follow-up, moot and research support                                                                                      | 6.2.1                         |
| Clubs and Societies | Supports law clubs to register (15+ members and a patron) and run active programmes                                                                                                                          | 6.2.6, 6.3                    |
| Sports              | Basketball, Sports Week, fun races, FOL Sports Club; one male and one female representative                                                                                                                  | 6.2.2                         |
| Events              | Law mixers, Finalists Dinner and Gala                                                                                                                                                                        | Proposed 6.2.4                |
| Post School Success | Opportunity Hub, scholarships, Entrepreneur Hub, law firm internships, alumni network                                                                                                                        | New: Works with 6.4 and 7.2   |
| Publicity           | Social media, storytelling, "You said, we did", accessible communication                                                                                                                                     | 6.2.5 and Publicity Secretary |
| Disabilities        | Works with students with disabilities to identify barriers, secure reasonable accommodations and accessible materials, and make sure every event, space and opportunity in the Faculty of Law is open to all | 8.2.3                         |

Accountability 8.

- Published minutes and a semester report on what we did and spent.
  - A public promise tracker: Not started, In progress, Done.
- Equal treatment of all students, including Diploma students, regardless of gender or background (Article 27).
- Lecturer accountability. They should be able to provide adequate support to students. (Notes and other materials required)

9. DIPLOMA STUDENTS, WE SEE YOU

On our one on one conversations with diploma students, we took note that they would love to proceed to LLB.

As part of our mission we shall continue fighting and following up and carry on from where the previous administration left

10. PUT CUEA FOL ON THE MAP!

- An effective media team that tells the story of CUEA law students and gives updates on ongoing events
- Inter law-school events. Sports tournaments with other law schools, hosting debates and moots.

SISI NI?

JURIS

VOTE JURIS

